

National Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster

Promoting Cooperation, Communication, Coordination and Collaboration during Disaster Preparedness, Response, Relief and Recovery

In the wake of Hurricane Katrina and the unprecedented number of people affected the following organizations are accepting contributions to fund their disaster response, relief and/or recovery efforts in Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana and across the country. Please contact the organizations directly for information about the services they are providing now and/or will provide over the coming months and years to help families recover from this devastation to their lives and homes.
